Daniel Livingston Prize (Level 3)

In 1933, Daniel Livingston, storekeeper of Millicent, South Australia, bequeathed to the Minister of Agriculture approximately £1,700, to found annual scholarships at Roseworthy College to be called the “Daniel Livingston Scholarships” and to be awarded in such manner as the Cabinet Minister controlling the Department of Agriculture in South Australia shall think fit.

In 2019 the Minister for Agriculture, Food and Fisheries, being the corporate successor of the Minister for Agriculture and the trustee of this Trust, appointed the University as the sole trustee of the Trust and accordingly, the capital of the fund was transferred to the University’s Endowment Fund.
